Vacheron Constantin opens first boutique in Scotland.

- Vacheron Constantin opens first UK boutique outside of London
- Celebrates a relationship with Scotland of more than 200 years
- A new two-story boutique boasts original features from late 18th Century

December 2021 – Vacheron Constantin, the luxury Swiss timepiece Maison with over two hundred and sixty five years of heritage, is delighted to open their first boutique outside of London, on Edinburgh's Frederick Street. In keeping with Vacheron Constantin's high level of sophistication and commitment to outstanding customer service, this new opening represents an opportunity for watch connoisseurs and collectors to discover the excellence, craftsmanship and heritage that make up the world of Vacheron Constantin.

Vacheron Constantin currently has two boutiques in the UK on Old Bond Street and within the Fine Watch Room at Harrods, London.

This new boutique will offer clients the best space and the best location for exclusive services and amazing experiences. The boutique features a distinctive glass façade, which invites collectors and visitors to discover the Maison's creativity and fine craftsmanship in a harmonious old-meets-new environment fitting the spirit of Vacheron Constantin's contemporary watchmaking.

The impressive entrance leads to a refined interior which incorporates a sleek brass-toned design and modern elegance with the Maison's new boutique design concept. A striking marquetry wall with Maltese cross motif creates a focal point on the ground floor that conveys Vacheron Constantin's dedication to high watchmaking artistry. The contemporary first floor salon space is complimented by beautifully crafted historical features.

Demonstrating Vacheron Constantin's limitless technical and aesthetic creativity, customers will be welcome to discover a variety of timepieces and calibres, from simple models to high complications, as well as exclusive editions.

This new Vacheron Constantin boutique is located at 3 Frederick Street, Edinburgh, EH2 2EY.
Monday – Saturday 9.30am–6pm
Sunday – 11am–5pm
