VACHERON CONSTANTIN LAUNCHES
THE FIFTYSIX® COLLECTION
IN AUSTRALIA

Sydney, October 10th 2018 - Vacheron Constantin transformed the iconic Restaurant Hubert into a luxurious jazz theatre to launch the Fiftysix® collection. 100 Influential guests were invited to experience Fiftysix® at a dinner which included a special performance by Australian singer songwriter Megan Washington.

For Vacheron Constantin, Fiftysix® collection pays tribute to the 1950's, a time marked by easy to wear and elegantly designed watches. From the automatic movement to the glass box crystal or the distinctive lugs design, a specialty of the Maison, the Fiftysix® brings back the best of this period while fully embracing the present time and the modern expectations of high watchmaking lovers

Throughout the evening a series of Fiftysix® installations and one to one areas were revealed to guests giving them the opportunity to view and try the collection in a 1950s jazz-inspired setting. Highlights on the evening also included a KRUG and caviar bar as well as whiskey tasting by The Balvenie.

The new Fiftysix collection is available from 1st September 2018 at all Vacheron Constantin boutiques as well as across the Maison's authorized distributor's network.
