First boutique in Western Japan to open on September 20th

Osaka, September 2019 – Vacheron Constantin, the world's oldest Haute Horlogerie Manufacturer with more than 260 years of uninterrupted history, announces the opening of the first boutique in Western Japan. This new exclusive boutique will make debut on September 20th in the flagship Daimaru Shinsaibashi Store.

Vacheron Constantin's refined and high quality standard of "hospitality" is in common with the "world best customer experience" offered by Daimaru, a distinguished and leading department store in Japan. Not only watch connoisseurs and collectors, but also those who have not had the opportunity to discover Vacheron Constantin yet will appreciate the shared values as well as sophisticated elegance and exquisite timepieces at the new Shinsaibashi boutique.

"We have been looking forward to opening the very first boutique in Western Japan. Daimaru Shinsaibashi store, with a history of approximately 300 years, is known as the landmark of Osaka drawing people from all over the world. We are very happy to be able to offer Vacheron Constantin's finest masterpieces at this opportunity of the major renovation project at Daimaru Shinsaibashi." says Vincent Gouget, Brand Director of Vacheron Constantin Japan.

In the spirit of Belle Haute Horlogerie, the spacious and relaxing boutique features a black and beige design code and showcases the latest interior concept with the round-shaped furniture provides a warm welcome environment to watch connoisseurs and collectors. This new boutique houses a complete timepieces collection from simple models to high complication models, in addition to exclusive boutique limited editions.
